

All of the sins we have committed are charged to Jesus Christ. He takes the blame. By dying on the cross, He paid the price for your sins. When God looks at our records in the books of heaven, He sees only the perfect life of obedience Jesus lived while here on this earth. This perfect life is credited to our accounts. We are all made clean from sin by the offering that He made of His own body, "once and for all." Hebrews 9:12.

As you by faith receive Christ as your Saviour, you can now know you have eternal life. As long as you leave yourself in the hands of your Lord, you no longer have to worry or fear about your future. The Bible says: "This, then, is the witness: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. Whoever has the Son has this life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life." 1 John 5:11, 12.

Tell God you want to accept His gift of grace. Tell Him something like this:

"Dear Father: I have sinned and come far short of what You want me to be. I long to be completely forgiven and saved from my sins. I do accept Jesus as my Saviour. I believe that He is Your Son and that by His death I am saved. I want to turn over my entire life to Him. Please come into my heart and fill me with Your love. I want to thank You for hearing and answering my prayer, for I pray it in the name of Jesus. Amen."

I have by faith accepted Jesus as my Saviour. ☐

I know that I have been forgiven. ☐

I will surrender anew each day to His rulership in my life. ☐

The great apostle Paul was at one time a great enemy of Christianity. He had been reared a very strict Jew, and in this new religion founded by Christ he saw a great enemy. He did everything he could to destroy it.

On his way to Damascus to imprison some Christians, Paul was struck down and blinded by a bright light from heaven. Then he heard Christ's voice.

Paul had thought he was a good and moral man. He had been satisfied until he compared himself with Jesus Christ. Later he was to realize, as he says in 1 Timothy 1:15, "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. I am the worst of them."

Paul was totally blind. Unable to look about, he could only look within. After three days, Ananias, a servant of God, came to Paul to help him know, accept, and follow Jesus Christ as his Saviour.

Paul accepted Christ as his Saviour and Lord. He became a great champion for Christianity. He found Jesus the only One who could save him, and he willingly accepted Him and followed Him the rest of his life: "And now the prize of victory is waiting for me, the crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on that day--and not only to me, but to all those who wait with love for Him to appear." 2 Timothy 4:8.
