

John challenges us to follow our great example, Christ, in all things. "He that saith he abideth in Him ought himself also so to walk, even as He walked." 1 John 2:6. It was Christ who consecrated the seventh day in honor of His work of creation. It was He who kept it when on this earth. It was He who told the disciples to pray that they could keep it after His death. It was He who commanded us to keep His commandments as an expression of love. Let us decide that we are going to do what He has indicated is His will for us.

Through the study of these lessons I have learned from the Bible that the seventh day (Saturday) is the day to be kept holy by Christians. ☐

I want to study this subject further and would appreciate additional reading material. ☐

About the Day We Call Sunday

Always pray before opening your Bible.

Find the text in your Bible and write the answer.

Millions of sincere Christians conscientiously go to church and refrain from ordinary activities on the first day of the week, which is called Sunday. They believe that they are doing what God has asked them to do.

If one were to ask a dozen different Christians why they worship on the first day of the week instead of the seventh as God has commanded, he would probably receive five or six different explanations. There is no uniformity in the reasons given for altering God's day of worship. Some will say that the day was changed at Pentecost, others will say that Christ, at His death instituted another day. Still others admit that they do not know why the change was made.

There is only one safe guide to follow the Bible. Let us not depend upon tradition; let us build on Bible as we study.
