

DEER

1. Name three (3) different members of the deer family.
2. A. What is a male, female and baby deer called?
3. Name the largest and smallest deer found in North America.
4. Name two (2) special features about deer.
5. How long does it take a male deer to grow antlers?
6. Do they ever lose their antlers?
7. How much do antlers weigh?
8. What type of deer do you hear about at Christmas time?
9. Complete a deer puzzle or do a craft about deer.

HELPS:

1. Roe deer, red deer, key deer, follow deer, white-tailed deer, black-tailed deer, mule deer, moose, elk, and reindeer.
2. Buck, Doe, Fawn
3. Moose and Key deer
4. They are strong, fast, and graceful; can run up to 45 mph; can dodge trees and shrubs without slowing down; can leap 30 ft. wide streams; can jump fences up to 10 ft. high.
5. 4-5 months if plenty of good food
6. They drop off every year around January-April
7. Up to 65 pounds
8. Reindeer